

Social Studies
6th grade

Unit: Map Skills

Standard 3: Understands people, places, and environment

- Creates, interprets, uses, and distinguishes various representations of the earth, such as maps, globes
- Locates and describes varying land forms and geographic features, such as mountains, islands, deserts, and oceans

Unit: Ancient Mesopotamia

Standard 2: Understands the ways human beings view themselves in and over time

- Identifies and describes selected historical periods and patterns of change within and across cultures, such as the adjustments to physical geography, accomplishments and achievements of a given civilization, and development of government systems

Unit: Ancient Egypt

Standard 2: Understands the ways human beings view themselves in and over time

- Identifies and describes selected historical periods and patterns of change within and across cultures, such as the adjustments to physical geography, accomplishments and achievements of a given civilization, and development of government systems

Standard 4: Understands individual development and identity

- Identifies and describes ways regional, ethnic, and national cultures influence individual's daily lives

Unit: Ancient Greece

Standard 1: Understands culture and cultural diversity

- Compares similarities and differences in the ways groups, societies, and cultures meet human needs and concerns
- Explains and gives examples of how architecture, other artifacts, traditions, beliefs, values, and behaviors contribute to the development and transmission of culture

Standard 2: Understands the ways human beings view themselves in and over time

- Identifies and describes selected historical periods and patterns of change within and across cultures, such as the adjustments to physical geography, accomplishments and achievements of a given civilization, and development of government systems

Standard 4: Understands individual development and identity

- Identifies and describes ways regional, ethnic, and national cultures influence individual's daily lives

Unit: Ancient Rome

Standard 1: Understands culture and cultural diversity

- Compares similarities and differences in the ways groups, societies, and cultures meet human needs and concerns
- Explains and gives examples of how architecture, other artifacts, traditions, beliefs, values, and behaviors contribute to the development and transmission of culture

Standard 2: Understands the ways human beings view themselves in and over time

- Identifies and describes selected historical periods and patterns of change within and across cultures, such as the adjustments to physical geography, accomplishments and achievements of a given civilization, and development of government systems

Standard 4: Understands individual development and identity

- Identifies and describes ways regional, ethnic, and national cultures influence individual's daily lives

Unit: Middle Ages

Standard 2: Understands the ways human beings view themselves in and over time

- Identifies and describes selected historical periods and patterns of change within and across cultures, such as the adjustments to physical geography, accomplishments and achievements of a given civilization, and development of government systems

Standard 4: Understands individual development and identity

- Identifies and describes ways regional, ethnic, and national cultures influence individual's daily lives

Unit: Modern Europe

Standard 1: Understands culture and cultural diversity

- Compares similarities and differences in the ways groups, societies, and cultures meet human needs and concerns
- Explains and gives examples of how architecture, other artifacts, traditions, beliefs, values, and behaviors contribute to the development and transmission of culture

Standard 8: Understands global connections and interdependence

- Analyzes examples of conflict, cooperation, and interdependence among groups, societies, and nations

